FOOD

Your cook will plan menus around hearty and varied breakfasts, light lunches and long generous dinners. She will prepare traditional American fare including chicken, fresh fish and lobster, beef, pork, lamb and pasta ... as well as her own unique mix of Jamaican specialties including ackee and saltfish, delicious homemade soups and desserts, curried goat and everyone's favorite, jerk pork and chicken.

If you've want to stop planning meals while you're on your vacation, a perfectly fine option is to tell us, "I've come here to stop making decisions. Just tell our cook to show us her best!"

Alternatively, you may offer any meal planning input you wish before your trip via our office ~ or directly with your cook on your second day at the villa before she does her major shopping for the rest of the week. However, be assured that it is not necessary for you to make any of the menu decisions. Your experienced cook can do it all while you relax.

If you have allergies or wish to avoid specific foods, do let us know that before you arrive. Also, let us know in advance if any guest has an extraordinarily large appetite! Your cook will take note!
